This matter is before the court upon its own motion. After post-sentencing argumentation, the Court believes it is necessary for the record to clarify its reasoning concerning a thirty (30) month concurrent sentence issued based on Defendant's probation violation. The Court here clarifies that the issuance of this sentence was based not on a post-Booker analysis or considering the factors listed in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), but solely on consideration of the Sentencing Guidelines alone, and treating those Guidelines as mandatory. The record should be should reflect this reasoning.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
